Data Processing Addendum

to the Master Services Agreement between Fernway and Quaywise Couriers

Fernway is the controller and Quaywise Couriers ("Courier") is the processor of the personal data described below. Both companies are fictional.

1. Scope

Courier processes the names, delivery addresses, phone numbers and delivery notes of Fernway's customers, only to deliver and collect bikes.

2. Instructions

Courier processes personal data only on Fernway's documented instructions, including this addendum and the Master Services Agreement.

3. Security

3.1 Courier keeps personal data on encrypted devices and limits access to the staff who need it for a Booking.

3.2 Courier tests its security measures at least once a year and shares a summary of the results on request.

4. Personal data breaches

4.1 Courier will notify Fernway of a personal data breach without undue delay.

4.2 The notice describes the breach, the data and the people affected, and what Courier is doing about it.

5. Sub-processors

5.1 Fernway gives general authorisation to the sub-processors listed in Annex 2.

5.2 Courier will inform Fernway of any new sub-processor.

6. Deletion

Courier deletes the customer personal data 180 days after the Master Services Agreement ends, unless the law requires it to keep the data longer.

Annex 2: Sub-processors

To be provided.
